VOLUNTARY RELINQUISHMENT OF ATHLETICS AID AGREEMENT

Updated 4/2025

I, _____, have voluntarily relinquished my athletics aid at Arkansas State University. I understand that NCAA and SBC rules provide that such athletically related scholarships may be canceled when a student-athlete voluntarily withdraws from a sport for personal reasons. Per NCAA 15.3.4, institutional financial aid based in any degree on athletics ability may be reduced or cancelled during the period of award if the recipient:

- Render himself or herself ineligible for intercollegiate competition;
- Fraudulently misrepresents any information on an application, letter of intent or financial aid agreement;
- Engages in serious misconduct warranting substantial disciplinary penalty from the institution's normal disciplinary board;
- Voluntarily withdraws from a sport at any time for personal reasons; or
- The prospective student-athlete does not attend class as a full-time student in a regular term of the academic year and is dis-enrolled pursuant to institutional policy.

Furthermore, I understand that I have an opportunity to have a hearing before the Financial Aid Committee of this University before the termination of my aid becomes final. I recognize that I do not have a right to a campus review relative to this voluntary relinquishment of my aid, but I hereby waive such a hearing.
