A-State Museum Council of Advisors

The Museum Advisory Council is a group of individuals dedicated to supporting the museum and its mission as an educational and cultural institution. Members advocate for the museum within the community and the state. They support the museum's efforts to care for its collection, assist with quality educational programs and events, and bolster the museum's relevance within A-State. The Museum Advisory Council is a volunteer organization that serves in an advisory capacity only and has no governing authority over the museum.
