A-State Museum Visitor Information

Arkansas State University Museum visitor and contact information.

- A-State Museum Visiting Hours
- A-State Museum Directions and Parking
- A-State Museum Contact Information

A-State Museum Visiting Hours

Arkansas State University Museum is free to the public and has visiting hours from 10 am until 4:45 pm, Tuesday through Saturday. We are closed on Mondays, Sundays, and University Holidays.

For the latest information regarding programs, events, special closure notices due to early release or weather, visit our social media page.

A-State Museum Directions and Parking

Arkansas State University Museum is located at 320 University Loop, Jonesboro, AR, 72401. A-State Museum is adjacent to the Dean B. Ellis Library. Follow campus signs for Library/Museum.

Parking is restricted to areas marked as “Museum Visitor,” “Visitor,” or metered parking. Each parking spot is not individually marked. University faculty, staff, and students are restricted from parking in any spot labeled as visitor/museum visitor. A-State Museum is not responsible for any warnings or tickets issued. A complete list of parking rules and maps can be found on the University’s Parking Services website.

Directions to A-State Museum.pdf

A-State Museum Contact Information

Arkansas State University Museum can be reached at 870-972-2074 or museum@astate.edu.

Mailing Address:
Arkansas State University Museum
PO Box 490
State University, AR 72467

For large packages shipped USPS and all UPS, Fed-Ex, DHL, or other shipping company:
Arkansas State University Museum
c/o Central Receiving
2713 Pawnee St., Building A
Jonesboro, AR 72401

A-State Museum Office Hours are 8 am to 5 pm, Monday through Friday. The Museum office is closed Saturdays, Sundays, and University Holidays.

For the latest information regarding programs, events, special closure notices due to early release or weather, visit our social media pages: Facebook and Instagram.