

How do I know when my instructor has graded my assignment?

When a change is made to your course grades, the Grades link in Course Navigation adds a indicator representing the number of changes in a course since your last visit. The Grades page shows the details of your graded assignments.

Note: You can also set up notifications to know when your instructor grades an assignment.

A dot next to the assignment indicates the assignment that has been graded [1]. The indicator disappears when you navigate away or refresh the page.

The score column displays the score given to the assignment [2].

In the Grades page, you can also see if the assignment includes scoring details, comments, or rubrics.
