

Tuesday Morning Recital

The Tuesday Morning Recital is a performance opportunity for all undergraduate and graduate music majors. Recitals are held on Tuesdays at 11:00 am and some rare Fridays at 11:00 am at the end of semesters. All BA, BME, BM Performance, and MM Performance students enrolled in lessons must perform a solo on TMR once a semester. (A student can substitute with a solo performance in a Studio Recital, Half/Full/Graduate Recital, or other performances of a solo as defined above.)

Students must sign up for their preferred recital date and send their program information.
