

Educator Preparation Provider

The Professional Education Programs office manages admissions, licensure, and placements for all teacher candidates and future teacher candidates. For more information on admission into the teacher education program, field placements, and licensure, as well as related resources, visit: