New Faculty Orientation

New Faculty Orientation is just one of the many ways that Arkansas State University invests in the success of its faculty at all stages of their careers. Orientation will introduce you to critical information, resources, and support for your research, teaching, and outreach efforts.

All PowerPoint presentations and important information from New Faculty Orientation are available in your Employee Learning Plan.

- Training Videos and Introductions
- This Year's Agenda
    - Agenda

Training Videos and Introductions

To access training videos and introductions from campus resources, log in to PackPortal.

Navigate to the Employee Learning Plan.

This Year's Agenda

Orientation will take place August 18th starting at 8:00 a.m. at the Fowler Center in the Grand Hall.

This Year's Agenda

Agenda