On-Campus Resources for Faculty/Staff

Here’s a list of on-campus resources available to A-State faculty and staff! We’ll do our best to keep everything current, but since things can change, we recommend reaching out to the department or team directly to make sure you have the most up-to-date information.

Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning

Vision

To increase the teaching, research, and service of all A-State faculty through professional development opportunities. These opportunities include:

- Providing opportunities for effective teaching
- Emphasis on best practices in teaching and learning
- Effective and appropriate integration of instructional technologies
- Course design and professional development
- Creating a dynamic resource center to satisfy multiple learning styles and needs

Mission

To provide instructional design tools, best practices in teaching and learning, and professional development by using researched pedagogical practices that empower faculty to foster academic excellence as educators, researchers, and professionals."
