Summary of Tests Offered

The Testing Center at Arkansas State University administers a wide range of computer-based standardized exams for students, professionals, and the community. Most tests are offered year-round, except during university holidays and campus conflicts. Appointments are required for all exams.

Computer-Based Testing Environment

Each exam begins with a short tutorial to help candidates navigate the system and understand how to answer questions. A test administrator is available at all times for technical assistance. Many candidates appreciate the quiet, individualized environment and the immediate score report feedback available for most exams.

> Special Accommodations
> Requests for accommodations must be made directly with the testing company prior to scheduling.

Scheduling & Payment

Computer-based tests are given year-round on the computer except for University holidays and on-campus conflicts. Special testing accommodations for persons with disabilities must be made directly with the testing company.

- Most exams require advance payment through the test provider or the A-State Marketplace.
- After payment through the A-State Marketplace, Testing Center staff will contact you to schedule your appointment.
- Fees paid on the A-State marketplace are nonrefundable, and rescheduling may require waiting until the next testing window.

For fee information, reschedule and cancellation policies, time limits, and other test specific information, please visit the individual website below.
